

Issue 1 – August

2015

Hi All, given that most information is on the new website we will not be producing a copy of the Link but will instead have a shorter communication in the form of a monthly newsletter, of which this is the first! This will allow information to be circulated much quicker as you will not need to wait until the next quarter for anything

All website requests still need to be sent to Louise directly to laporton@gmail.com

However, if there is anything else that you would like communicated that is not appropriate for the website then please do send it to me direct.

Kindest Regards

Lynne Wilson
